

Welcome back all dancers and parents returning from last season! I also want to give a special welcome to all the new dancers and parents! I am really looking forward to another great season with Just For Kix!

We will be utilizing the Just For Kix website to access our monthly calendars and other important information. To access the website go to: www.justforkix.com, click on classes, and your city. You may want to bookmark our site so you can eliminate these steps for next time. The first two rows of buttons are access to the Just For Kix main website. You can find information about ordering from the JFK catalog, JFK events and camps, and the online studio (games, videos, articles, etc). The bottom two rows of buttons are specific to our dance program.

Where to find things on our website:
