

Dancers and Parents ~ Welcome to our website! This new website will help parents and dancers be fully informed during our season. You'll find monthly calendars, upcoming performances, class information, uniform information, registration information, and much, much more! Don't ever hesitate to call or email me (see "contact information"). All our dancers are precious and we are so glad to have you in Just For Kix!

Where to find things in our website:

Calendar: Dates you need to know, arrival times, rescheduled classes, performance dates.

Class Information: Registration information, class location, class times, uniform information, class fees, and payment information.

Contact Us: Director and home office contact information.

General Information: What to wear to class, practicing at home, payment information, etc.

Class Notes: Current information on competitions, cancellations, and information coming home from class.

Performances: Detailed information about upcoming performances.

Photos: Photos that I have received from performances. I LOVE to receive pictures. Feel free to e-mail them to me anytime at cambridge_mn@justforkix.com
